RE DRILL SAVES STUDENTS IN SCHOOL

While Roof Is Burning Students March Out in Order and Unharmed.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—The success of the drill in Ogden City public schools demonstrated again today, when the students of the Washington school on 14th Washington avenue marched safely to the street while the roof of the building was ablaze. There was not the slightest disorder, the children being well trained in the presence of fire. When the fire reached the ground, Principal J. A. Junk is largely responsible for the efficient manner in which the students were removed from the building when the fire was discovered. The school had been in session only thirty minutes this morning, when sparks from a chimney fired the roof. When the fire was given to him, Principal Junk ordered his assistant to call for the fire department, while he led the usual signal for a fire drill. He then ordered the children to march out of the building in the customary drill, marching down the stairs and out the building. When the firemen arrived a large portion of the roof was ablaze. The fire was quickly put out before any great damage had been done. It will be necessary to resharpen a portion of the roof.

PREPARE FOR FESTIVAL.

High School for Deaf and Blind Will Give Program May 22.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—The annual spring festival at the Utah School for the Deaf and Blind, a feature which has rapidly become popular since its inauguration, will be held on May 23 this year. In making preparations for the festival, which is the greatest day of the year at the state institution, the school faculty are now engaged in making preparations for the festival. The program is given in the open air on the school grounds beginning at 10 o'clock in the evening. The program is given in the open air on the school grounds beginning at 10 o'clock in the evening. Some chronic sufferers from rheumatism are human barometers. They can recognize by the growing pains in their tender joints and muscles the slightest increase of moisture in the air.

Such a condition of hypersensitiveness is always attended with thin blood. The watery, poison-laden blood that fills the arteries must be built up and purified before there can be any progress toward permanent recovery. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and the pure, rich blood eradicates rheumatism from the system and strengthens the body to resist another attack. See George Shorten today confiscated twenty cases of the coast berries and destroyed them. Upon investigation regarding the source from which this decayed fruit was reaching the retail market, the officer found that it was being sold by a local express company. The berries had been rejected by local commission men, according to Inspector Shorten, because they were found to be in damaged condition and the express company sold the shipment to local retailers at greatly reduced prices in order to save the express charges. It is alleged. The city official notified the local agent of the company at once that he was violating the ordinance and would be prosecuted if the act were repeated.

WILL MARRY STEPSON.

Tangle of Relationship That Might Well Puzzle Lawyers to Ensnare.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—A relationship complication which the parties themselves may find difficult in solving will result from the marriage of James Vellinga and his stepmother, Mrs. Maria C. Brenner. Vellinga, who was granted a license to wed by County Clerk S. G. Dye today. The ceremony may be performed at the Vellinga family home, 310 Twenty-eighth street, although a definite engagement with the presiding bishop of the ward had not been arranged at a late hour this afternoon. When the ceremony is performed, Mr. Vellinga becomes his own stepfather, as well as the stepfather of his brothers and sisters. His own father, who is not divorced, would be his stepson, while he becomes the stepfather of his former half brothers and sisters. From Mrs. Vellinga's standpoint the situation resolves itself into one nearly unsolvable. Mrs. Vellinga, the fiancée of her stepson, was divorced from James J. Vellinga, her fiancée's father, more than a year ago, since which time, according to James Vellinga, he has resided outside of the state to evade payment of alimony and other debts. The bride-to-be is 35 years old and James Vellinga, who is employed as a clerk at the Ogden department store, is 21 years of age. After the wedding they expect to make their home at the present family home, 310 Twenty-eighth street.

WILL GIVE PROTECTION.

Sanitary Inspector and Board of Health Deal With Garbage Problem.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—In response to a complaint made by Nathan Tanner, Inspector of Health, the board of health visited Ogden today and confirmed the order of City Inspector George Shorten that Gus Olson must no longer permit scavengers to dump filth on his property in West Ogden. In addition to this, Olson was instructed to clean up the dump once, as it is now regarded as a nuisance. Inspector Shorten declares that he has encountered more than the usual amount of trouble from this source during the present spring. Property owners in almost every section of the city, he contends, are permitting scavengers to dump any sort of refuse on low lots, no matter how unsightly or offensive it may be to those living in the vicinity. Stringent orders are being issued by the local health authorities against such practices.

MRS. JOHN SEAMAN DIES.

Well-Known Woman of Ogden Is Victim of Pneumonia.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—Mrs. Susannah Seaman, wife of John Seaman, a pioneer of Utah and for many years a resident of Weber county, died tonight at 11 o'clock from pneumonia at the family residence, 706 Twenty-first street. She was 75 years of age. Besides the husband, four children, George A. Seaman, city recorder of Ogden; Mrs. C. W. Taggart, Mrs. W. G. Graham and Miss Josephine Seaman, the latter a teacher in Ogden school, survive. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Howell Estate $15,756.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—The estate of the late Reese Howell, who died March 14, 1913, is valued at $15,756, according to a petition filed in the district court today. Mrs. Jennie Howell filed the petition and asks that letters testamentary be issued to her. In a will the late Mr. Howell names his wife as executrix and bequeaths the sum of $1000 to each of his sons, James A. and W. C. Howell, the remainder of the estate being left to the widow.

Arranging Programme.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—According to Manager J. D. Larson of the Ogden Publicity bureau, the programme for the get-together mass meeting at the Weber club Friday evening will be complete by tomorrow. It will include speeches by Mayor A. G. Fell, President H. B. Rowe of the Weber club and President A. P. Bigelow of the Ogden Baseball & Athletic association. The latter has been asked to furnish a musical programme during the banquet.

Auditor Makes Report.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, April 22.—In his report for the month of March, submitted to the city commissioners today, City Auditor W. P. Van Dyke shows the total receipts to have been $103,275.54, and the disbursements $80,939.39, leaving a cash balance for the month of $22,336.05. The report also shows that the total receipts for the month of March, 1913, which were paid last month, totaled $4429.48.

Brings Beauty to Young and Old

(Medical News)

The universal objection to face powder is solved by the use of a fine lotion easily made at home by dissolving 4 ounces of spumax (which costs little at any drug store) in 1/2 pint witch hazel (or hot water) with 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine added. This wonderful beautifier is very beneficial to the skin, because it prevents chapping, removes that shiny, oily, sallow look and adds beauty to any complexion. It does not show or rub off like powder, but, when on, seems part of the skin and gives a wholesome, charming tone.

Keep the scalp clean and beautiful hair will be the result. Shampoo with a teaspoonful of canthox dissolved in a cup of hot water and dandruff, dust and excess oil disappear immediately and the hair will be ever so lustrous, fluffy and healthy and the head will feel good. Canthox acts as a natural tonic to the scalp and prevents falling hair and scalp-irritation. It is easy to use, costs little and can be obtained at any druggist's. (Advertisement.)

The Ogden Ministerial association have decided to use a half-page advertisement in each of the two local papers each week. The Rev. Arthur Wittenberger, who promoted the plan, is chairman of a committee named to close the contract. The ministers take the stand that if newspaper advertising will attract crowds to theaters it should also increase church attendance.

RAINS APPRECIATED.

Storms of Last Week Make Glad Hearts of the Farmers.

Special to The Tribune.
BRIGHAM CITY, April 22.—The heavy rains that fell in this portion of the state the latter part of last week worked wonders for the agricultural lands of this section. From all portions of this county comes the information that the storm was of unusual value in placing the soil in a first-class condition to receive the seed in sections where planting had not taken place, and in sections where planting had been done previously and where the soil had already dried out to a great extent, the garden truck is coming along nicely, aided by the warm weather that followed the storm. This season differs greatly from last season. The prolonged storms of last spring prevented planting of spring wheat and other important crops for from three weeks to a month later than the usual seeding time, while this year the farmers have had ample time to do all their planting in good weather. The results should be larger crops with considerably earlier harvests.

Pushing Good Roads Work.

Special to The Tribune.
BRIGHAM CITY, April 22.—Work on the completion of the state road from a point just south of Willard to this city will commence within a few days, according to a statement made tonight by Thomas H. Blackburn, chairman of the board of county commissioners. Mr. Blackburn, Mr. E. Roche and J. F. Conley, with State Road Commissioner J. W. Jensen, made a trip over the road yesterday and decided upon the manner in which the road is to be constructed from Willard to Brigham. The road will not be graded or crushed rock, as was the first stretch from Hot Spring to Willard, but a less expensive road will be substituted. The officials found this end of the road in a better condition than was the south end, and therefore decided to build a first-class earth road. An appropriation of $8000 was made by the county and state two weeks ago with which to carry on the work in this vicinity, and it is the purpose of the commission to put a large force of men at work immediately. The road to be built this year will be eight miles long.

PROVO PIONEER DIES.

Mrs. Alpharetta J. Glazier Is Victim of Pneumonia; Funeral Today.

Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, April 22.—Mrs. Alpharetta Jane Glazier, wife of Judge L. S. Glazier, died here last evening from pneumonia. She came to Utah with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bunnell, in James C. Snow's company in 1853. She had lived in Provo since that date. She was born in Pottawattamie county, Iowa, November 20, 1848. Mrs. Glazier is survived by her husband, two daughters and four sons. The daughters are Mrs. Amy Nicholson of Las Vegas, Nev., and Mrs. Lillie Kendall of Provo. The sons are Adelbert, David, Irving and Reed, all of Pleasant View. Irving only was absent at the death of his mother, being on a mission to the southwestern states. Two sisters, Mrs. Phoebe Cluff of Central, Ariz., and Mrs. V. L. Halliday of Salt Lake, and two brothers, D. K. Bunnell of Provo and S. Bunnell of Lake View, also survive. The funeral will be held Friday at 10 a. m. in the Pleasant View meeting house.

Federal Court Opens.

Special to The Tribune.
POCATELLO, Ida., April 22.—Federal Judge F. S. Dietrich convened the district court here today. Many cases are on the calendar, including a number for alleged selling liquor to Indians and one of tampering with the United States mail. The first case is that of the city of Pocatello against James A. Murray, an application to annul the Pocatello water contracts. The city alleges that the company has violated the terms of the contract in defiance No. 84, which says that the company shall bring all the waters of Mink creek, which it is alleged, the company has failed to do. The company holds that the city is bringing an action on an ordinance which it has itself repudiated. The attorneys for the company are Norman E. Rulick and Governor James Hawley. E. C. O'Malley and D. Worth Clark represent the city.

Will Consider Petition.

Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, April 22.—Much interest centers here in the outcome of the contest between the "wets" and the "drys" regarding a special election. The petition circulated by the "wets" is alleged to have several hundred more names than the number required to insure the calling of a special election. City Attorney Jacob Coleman, in response to the request of the city commissioners, has advised that those who signed a petition for reconsideration of the question to voters may have their names stricken from the list, by presenting the statement in writing that they signed under a misapprehension. Thursday, April 24, is the last day for the presentation of the petitions.

Form New Company.

Special to The Tribune.
MURRAY, April 22.—J. A. Jones and Oak Olsen opened today in partnership a coal and lumber business at Seventeenth street, near the Oregon Short Line depot. Mr. Jones was formerly manager of Mr. Olsen's saw mill, and the mill company of Murray and both are well and favorably known.

Bond Issue Carries.

PAYSON, April 22.—At the special election held in Payson yesterday there were 236 in favor and 17 against bonding for the amount of $45,000 for the purpose of constructing a waterworks system for Payson city.

Bassett Funeral Tomorrow.

Funeral services for Mrs. Orma Laura Bassett, who died Monday night, will be held at the Eleventh ward chapel Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. In addition to her husband, F. C. Bassett, Jr., Mrs. Bassett is survived by two children, Orville, aged 9, and Martha, aged 6. Mrs. Bassett was born in Ogden, July 15, 1888, and was the daughter of O. D. and Marian Banks. At the present time, her father, O. D. Banks, is a patient in a local hospital. He will be unable to attend the funeral of his daughter.

TEST COMMISSION'S CONSTITUTIONALITY

What promises to become a serious attack on the constitutionality of the commission form of government was instituted in the district court yesterday when Attorney S. P. Armstrong, counsel for A. C. Larsen, accused of maintaining a disorderly house, demurred on the ground that the city commission, as an executive body, had no right to pass ordinances regulating the conduct of the citizens of the municipality. Armstrong argued that the city commission, having taken over the executive powers of the mayor and the legislative powers of the city council, was a plain violation of the constitution where-in it provides that there shall be no commingling of the departments of government—the executive, the legislative and the judicial.

Judge F. C. Loofbourow overruled the demurrer, stating, however, that he believed it involved a question of such grave importance that it should be decided by the supreme court rather than by the district court. Should Larsen lose his case an appeal will be taken to the supreme court on the issue raised yesterday. Larsen has demurred on the grounds that the complaint against him did not state facts sufficient to constitute an offense and that the complaint was not specific enough. On the second ground the court sustained the demurrer, but an amended complaint was filed immediately and the trial was set for May 9. Larsen is the proprietor of the St. Cecilia hotel. He was convicted in the city court and appealed.
